

Schindler Limited - Gender Pay Gap Report

Schindler is a leading provider of sustainable and smart urban mobility. Together with our customers, we help organise cities: by moving people and goods and connecting vertical and horizontal transportation systems. We engineer vertical mobility to make urban spaces more comfortable, inclusive, and sustainable.

Since our founding in Central Switzerland in 1874, we have been pioneering new technologies and driving innovation. We are combining innovation, technology, and smart mobility with high ethical standards and respect for the environment. In the world's growing metropolises, our products and services enable quality of urban living for current and future generations.

Schindler Ltd is the UK arm of the global business and we are committed to providing an environment where people feel welcomed, embraced and empowered to achieve great things as part of Schindler. And we employ a wealth of backgrounds, experiences, and perspectives that reflects our diverse customer base and the communities where we operate - resulting in a high-performing, engaged team.

At the snapshot date, Schindler Ltd employed 546 employees, of which 483 (88%) were male and 63 (12%) were female

Gender Pay Results

In line with the UK legislation as a company in the private sector, we are required by law to carry out Gender Pay Reporting under the Equality Act 2010 (Gender Pay Gap Information) Regulations 2017 and to publish an annual Gender Pay Gap report.

This involved carrying out six calculations that show the difference between the average earnings of men and women in our organisation; it did not involve publishing individual employees' data.

We are required to publish the results on our own website and an Government website. We will do this within one calendar year of 5th April 2022.

The mean gender pay gap for Schindler Limited is 21.8%

The median gender pay gap for Schindler Limited is 20.8%

The mean gender bonus gap for Schindler Limited is 35.65%
